Mr. Zeke Maynard
P. O. Box 155
Lavergne, Tennessee

Dear Zeke:

Opal has recently given me your new address. I did not know you were in Tennessee or I would have attempted to contact you during our visit there over the holidays. I hope things are well with you, your wife and entire family.

I continue to thank God for the great work you have been and are doing. I know that you have found, and will continue to find, a vital ministry of the gospel right there where you are. Please take care of yourself as you also continue to show your unselfish love for others.

I write simply to send my love and continuing best wishes and prayers.

Your brother,

John Allen Chalk
